

I'd like to say that I believe Chairman Powell should delay the vote on media ownership rule changes until such time as more of the public can be made aware of the far-reaching consequences of such a change in the form of public debates. Kathryn King